New Advertisements.

THE South Part of the Subscriber's WHARF is now fit for Business: Coasting Sooners and inland Boats (of any Size) may now unload there full as commodiously and safely, and with as great Dispatch, as in any Dock in Town.—He has Stores already built, that will contain about Fifteen Hundred Barrels of Rice, and is about building more.

He will be much obliged to such Persons as will order their Produce to be landed at his Wharf; where, whenever they are inclinable to store their Rice, Indico, &c. they will be as safe from all Dangers, particularly from Fire, as in any Store in the Province.—He will be particularly attentive to give their Boats the utmost Dispatch; and as he is sure the Produce of the Province can be disposed of, at his Wharf, to as much Advantage as any where else, such of his Friends as will send whatever Rice, Indico, or naval Stores, they order to be landed at his Wharf, to him, he will sell those Articles for them, at the usual Rates. He will make no Charge this Crop for any Rice stored in his Stores, belonging to the Planters, not exceeding one Week, nor belonging to the Merchants, for that Time, provided it is shipped off at his Wharf.

CHRISTOPHER GADSDEN.

N. B. There is no Wharf in Town, where the Ships can lay more secure, or where their Cables will be so little liable to Damage: And such ships as land their Ballast at his Wharf, this Crop, shall be charged no Wharfage; be assisted to put it out, and have their Water Casks filled with as good Water as any to be got in or near Town besides, GRATIS. Not a Wharf in Town better (if so well) calculated for dispatching a Vessel, or where there is so little Occasion for Porters to roll Rice, &c.—Indeed, that Charge may be altogether saved, or at most can cost the Gentlemen in Trade but a mere Trifle.

PHILIP HAWKINS, & Comp.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

WHEN I read the letter addreſſed to you, in your Gazette No. 1798, dated the 15th of March, which was not publiſhed, or did not come to my hands, before the 26th inſtant, wherein the affidavit of Capt. Livingſton, publiſhed in No. 1797, is ſaid to be an ex parte affidavit: From a regard to impartiality, I took the trouble of reviewing the whole matter in your Gazettes, No. 1795 dated the 13th February, and No. 1797 of the 8th March, and No. 1798 the laſt Gazette, 15th March.

In that No. 1795, the General Committee, by an advertiſement, dated February 9th, publiſh the declaration of John Tuke, (which having been made and ſubſcribed, no doubt with ſolemnity, before the Committee, and expreſſing ſo much concern for having tranſgreſſed the general reſolutions, which he had ſubſcribed, deſerves as much credit as if he had made an affidavit) charging the report made to the General Committee, by Alexander Livingſton, of the tranſactions relating to the ſale of his Wines, to be abſolutely falſe, and that the Wines were bought on his own (Tuke's) account. To this declaration of Tuke's, the General Committee appear to give credit. But, if Alexander Livingſton had ſold the Wines to Tuke, on his own account, Livingſton muſt have had a better opinion of Tuke's credit, than Meſſrs. Wilſon, Curtin, Wayne, & Company had, who refuſed to truſt him for Flour, without ſecurity.

It is well known, that tranſient perſons cannot indulge purchaſers of their goods, with forbearance of payment, which perſons who reſide in the province may do; and therefore tranſient perſons ought, and generally do, inquire into the ability of perſons, with whom they are about to deal.

The argument drawn, from Livingſton's taking care that his libel (if it was one) ſhould not be publiſhed 'till after he had left the province, can have no weight; for, though Livingſton is gone off the province, you, Mr. Timothy, can do him the juſtice, to clear him from any affected delay, by mentioning the time when he put into your hands, the affidavit, for your publiſhing it in the next Gazette; if it has ſlipped your memory, there are ſome in town, who remember it.

I do not mean to charge you, Sir, with any unfairneſs in the delay: the apology made by you, to the public, for the ſilence of your preſs for ſome time, for want of paper from Philadelphia, clear both you and Livingſton from it.

If we coolly and impartially conſider all theſe circumſtances, Alexander Livingſton's affidavit, cannot appear, in equity and good conſcience, to have been taken ex parte, but to have been, in a manner, forced from him, in the neceſſary vindication of his veracity, in anſwer to Mr. Tuke's ſolemn declaration, equivalent to his affidavit, charging Captain Livingſton, with having reported an abſolute falſity to the General Committee.

If any reply is made to theſe obſervations, I promiſe the public, that I will not trouble them, or myſelf, further on this ſubject. Truth muſt ſupport herſelf; let that prevail, I am content.

March 29th, 1770. OTHNIEL BEALE.

HENRY LIVINGSTON.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 29.

THE beginning of laſt Winter, a few public-ſpirited Gentlemen in this Town, ſet the Example to light the Streets, by putting up LAMPS at their Doors; many others would have done ſo, at the ſame Time, but were reſtrained by the Conſideration that they would thereby give Encouragement to the Sale of an Article of Britiſh Manufacture for which we are unconſtitutionally taxed: However, the great Utility of them having being obſerved, in Times of Fire, and upon other Occaſions, the Number is now encreaſed to near 200; and the Legiſlature hath ordered ſome to be put up, at all the Public Buildings, and at the Houſes where the Fire-Engines are lodged.—But for the Duty on Glaſs, 'tis thought, there would, by this Time, have been between 4 and 500 Globe Lamps imported, and diſtributed through this Town: And it ſeems to be the earneſt Wiſh of the Inhabitants that an Act may be paſſed the preſent Seſſion, for completely lighting all the Streets, with ſuch Lamps as we can have made.—In Philadelphia, they have them of their own Glaſs.

But for the General Reſolutions entered into by the Inhabitants of this Province, it is computed, that the Britiſh Merchants would have drawn from us this Year, no leſs a Sum than TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING, for the Article of SLAVES ALONE, purchaſed chiefly with Britiſh Manufactures.— Can there be a more glaring Inſtance of the Impropriety of attempting to tax Britons, in America, without their Conſent?

We are informed, that a Perſon well ſkilled in the making of PAPER, may ſoon be expected from Penſylvania, in order to eſtabliſh that Manufacture in this Province, if he meets with ſufficient Encouragement, which he undoubtedly may.

On Friday laſt there was a public Sale, of Forty Pipes of VIDONIA WINES, that had been ſeized, by the Collector, for Payment of the DUTIES upon One Hundred, imported contrary to the Reſolutions, and therefore ſtored. The whole GENERAL COMMITTEE were preſent. There were no Bidders, but a few Non-Subſcribers, and 35 of the Pipes, we hear, were knock'd off to one tranſient Gentleman, lately from Philadelphia, who cannot preſume to diſpoſe of them here.

The Duties upon Sixty odd Pipes of MADERA WINE, which arrived here ſame Day, and, conforming to the above-mentioned Reſolutions, cannot be ſold 'till a general Importation ſhall take Place, have been paid by the Gentleman to whom they are conſigned—and the Wines are to remain in Stores accordingly.

It ſeems to be apprehended by ſome, that if the Act of Parliament laying a Duty on Paper, Glaſs and Paints, ſhould be repealed the preſent Seſſion, without any other, we ſhall have immenſe Quantities of European and Eaſt-India Goods poured in upon us, from all Quarters—But, we hope, that will not be the Caſe; for Importers and Shippers, in that Circumſtance, would be inevitably ruined; as our Reſolutions reſtrain us from PURCHASING any ſuch Goods, 'till we ſhall be reſtored to our former Freedom; and as the Inhabitants throughout the Province (if we can preſume to know their Sentiments) will certainly continue to adhere moſt ſtrictly to the Letter of the ſaid Reſolutions.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS on the eighth Instant, a SCOONER, belonging to Colonel JOSEPH GLOVER, of this Province, navigated by four Negro Men, also his Property, loaded with One Hundred and Sixty-seven Barrels of RICE, the Property of sundry Persons, Inhabitants of this Province, was feloniously carried away from NORTH EDISTO River, by JOSEPH JORDAN, then Patroon or Master thereof, with the Assistance of THOMAS DANNAILS, and EDMUND JAMES. GOD SAVE THE KING.

SOUTH CAROLINA, March 9th, 1770.

TO ALL MEN, in all civilized Kingdoms, States, Provinces, Colonies, and Islands; and to all His Majesty's Subjects and others, on the Coast of Africa;

JOSEPH GLOVER, Esquire, of the Parish of St. Bartholomew, in the Province aforesaid, hereby GIVES NOTICE, of a most flagitious Robbery, and requesteth their Aid and Assistance, to seize, stop, and bring to Punishment, the Perpetrators of the Crime, to be set forth at large in this Advertisement, for the public Good of all commercial Countries, as well as for the Recovery of Part of his own Property, viz.

On or about the eighth Day of this present Month of March, Joseph Jordan, Thomas Dannails, and Edmund James, feloniously carried off, and went to Sea with, the coasting Scooner, called Two-Josephs, and four Negro Men Slaves, which Scooner, and Negroes, are the sole Property of the said Joseph Glover; together with the Cargo of the said Scooner, consisting of about one Hundred and Sixty-seven Barrels of Rice, the Property of divers Persons; laden and taken on board, at a Place or River, called Edisto, distant from Charles-Town, the Metropolis of South-Carolina aforesaid, about thirty Miles.

JOSEPH JORDAN,

Who was Patroon or Master of the said Scooner, is a Native of Madera, an illiterate Person, aged about forty Years, middle-sized, swarthy Complexion, and besides his ordinary Apparel had provided, for his Appearance in some other Country, a Suit of green Broad Cloth with gold Buttons, and gold Knee Garters, a blue Sattin Waistcoat trimmed with Gold, together with sundry other new Cloaths, among which is one Suit of the Pompadour Colour.

EDMUND JAMES,

The other Accomplice, passed in this Country for an Englishman, aged about thirty Years, a thick square Person, and inclining to Fat, of a light Complexion; he also writes a good Hand, and pretends to be an Artist in Navigation.

The four NEGRO MEN were put on board as Mariners, to sail the Scooner coastwise, from Pompon to Charles-Town aforesaid. Three of them whose Names are, Oak, Pompon, and Hazard, can speak very little English, and may not be able to tell their Master's Name. The fourth, whose Name is Africa, can speak English, but stammers, and stops in his Speech.

The SCOONER is square-sterned, almost new, about Forty-six and an half Feet Keel, straight Rabbit, sixteen and an half Feet Beam, six and an half Feet Hold, built of Live-Oak, and yellow Pine-Plank in this Province, and was registered in the Name of the said Joseph Glover, at the Custom-House Charles-Town, for forty Tons or thereabouts, on the 13th of February, 1769, and it is supposed that the Certificate of the Register is now on board. She has a figure Head of General Wolfe, white Bottom, yellow Sides, black Streaks; her Waist about two and an half Feet deep, the Main-mast newer than the Fore-mast, one large Hatchway, two Pumps, her Quarter-Deck about Twenty-three Feet long; Steerage under the Quarter-Deck, about six Feet long, sufficient Height for a man to sit upright, and entered by a Bacby-Hatch. The Cabbin, which is entered through a Companion, is papered and painted, it contains two State-Rooms, the Starboard Room somewhat larger than the other; the Doors of both are glazed above, and lift or slide up and down; two sashed and glazed Lights, and two painted figure Lights abaft, and also two Quarter Lights; a small brick Chimney in the Starboard Side of the Cabbin, up to the Quarter-Deck, with a wooden Funnel on Top.

About one Hundred and twenty BARRELS of RICE, on board the said Scooner are branded, fifty WH, seventy GP, seven Barrels branded SK, and forty Barrels are not marked at all.

The Scooner's BOAT, is a middle-sized Moses, painted with Spanish-Brown, her Sails are stamped thus
